

PARC is the acronym for the Plymouth Arts and Recreation Complex. It is a 16.6 acre site located at 650 Church Street (two blocks north of Kellogg Park) and is the home of numerous arts and recreational activities. The present building is a 100-year old school building (former Plymouth High School and then Central Middle School). Friends of the Rouge will occupy what used to be the library, located on the second floor.

Looking in from the hallway at office entrance – future location of Conference Room

A quick look to your left – future office of Executive Director

Conference Room and ED Office from Staff Work Stations

Staff Work Stations location

A view of Staff Work Stations from Break Room

View of Break Room (and future location of Rouge Education and Monitoring Lab) from Staff Work Stations

Demountable Walls (fig. 1)

Demountable Walls (Fig. 2)